ELEAZER WEST AND HIS DESCENDANTS

At this writing, (Dec. 1930) we have not succeeded in ascertaining the parentage of Eleazer West, (b. 1752) nor any information concerning his wife except that her given name was Anna. As yet we have not learned many facts concerning Eleazer West. What we have was obtained from three sources: 1. The 1889 diary of my grandfather, Aaron B. West. 2. An indenture from the records at Goshen dated in 1799, disposing of land owned by Eleazer West, deceased. 3. A letter from W. J. Coulter of Middletown, Orange County, New York informing us that Eleazer West was a Baptist minister.

We are giving all of this information in this booklet hoping that it may furnish a clue to Eleazer West's ancestry. The fact that William West went to Lee or Lennox as a young man after his father's death leads us to suspect that some of the Wests there were relatives. An Ebenezer West lived at Lee at that time, I believe. We later find that at Murray town, Genesee County, N. Y. in 1810, according to the U. S. census, there were living a David West and an Ebenezer West. We may find that these Wests were relatives, as both William and Eleazer went to Murray before 1818. Both David and Ebenezer were under forty-five years of age in 1810.

LETTER FROM W. J. COULTER

The following letter from Mr. Coulter of Middletown, N. Y. gives us some interesting data.

#86 Watkins Ave.,
Middletown, N. Y.,
October 31, 1930.

Mr. E. B. Comstock,
North Dallas High School
Dallas, Texas.

Dear Sir:-

With further reference to my letter of the 26th, I find that the Reverend Eleazer West was a minister of the Baptist faith who preached at a place now called Mt. Hope, eight miles due west of Middletown, in those days it was called Deerpark. Four miles due north of Mt. Hope or Deerpark was a thriving little village called New Vernon where the old school Baptist Church was founded by Elder Ebenezer West, presumably a brother or relative to Rev. Eleazer West.

On Mar. 25th, 1770, Oliver Delancey Esq. of New York City executed a deed or perpetual lease conveying to (50 acres) Messrs. W. Gillet, David Smith and Simeon Marsh lands lying in the town of Deerpark to be held in trust for the use of a Protestant minister. Marsh 2, 1771, David Johnston Esq. of New York City executed a deed for the same purpose and to the same persons, 25 acres lying next to the previous lot. There were two congregations, one Baptist presided over by Rev. Eleazer West, the other was Presbyterian and met at the house of Elijah Reeves. In 1785 the State of New York passed a law allowing churches to incorporate. The Presbyterian faith incorporated and claimed the land and after some little arbitration the Rev. Eleazer West was paid 10 pounds and moved off.

I have looked up the history of the Baptist faith in Orange County and find that the first Baptist faith in Orange County was at Warwick, Orange County, N. Y., where the Rev. Benedict was brought to Warwick from Stratfield, Conn. because there were many Connecticut people at Warwick. T is leads me to believe that probably the Rev. Eleazer West came from around Strafield, Conn., because there were Connecticut people at Deerpark or Mt. Hope where he preached. I imagine you will find that his father's name was Abial or Abiah West of Connecticut or possibly Massachusetts.

Very truly yours,

W. J. Coulter.

   9. William[2] West, born April 29, 1792; died Oct. 13, 1865. He was born at Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y. He died at Whiteford, Monroe Co., Mich.
   10. X Mary[3] Harding, born May 26, 1797

(The above is a true copy from the 1869 diary of A. B. West, Sylvania, Ohio. The diary is in the possession (1927) of E. B. West, Sylvania, Ohio)

Eleazer[2] West, Jr. and brother William went to Murray, Genesee, Co., N. Y. some time prior to 1818. It was in 1818 that William married Sabrina Baker of Pittsfield, Mass. He gave the Murray address at that time. We can find no record of any of the other members of the family moving to Monroe County, or as it was then called, Genesee Co. We surmise that the "1846" placed below the birth date of Abiel indicates the time at which he died.

There is a West gneology published in Vol. 60

* Data added to original of the New. England His. Gen. Register. None of the above dates are included there. We notice, however, that the name, Eleazer, appears in the 1790 census from Ulster Co., Wallkill Town instead of from Goshen, Orange Co. This is not strange, however, because the places are not very far apart. It is likely that the homestead was in Wallkill and that Eleazer went to Goshen, which was at that time the nearest town, for his mail.

9. WILLIAM[2] West, son of Eleazer West and wife, Anna, b. Apr. 29, 1792, d. Oct. 13, 1863. He was married February 14, 1818 to Sabrina, daughter of Aaron Baker of Pittsfield, Mass. at New Lebonon, N. Y. by Rev. Silas Churchill. William West gave as the place of his residence at the time of his marriage, Murray, Genesee Co., N. Y. (See list of marriages performed by Rev. Silas Churchill in the Pittsfield Library.) William's father died before he was eight years old. We have not information regarding him until the time of his marriage in 1818. We believe he spent a portion of his youth, however, near Pittsfield, Massachusetts for he married a Pittsfield girl. Before 1818 he went to Murray, Genesee County, as he gave that address at the time of his marriage. The Pittsfield records, book 70, p. 14 give an Indenture which was a quit claim deed from William West and his wife Sabrina to Levi Belden and covered a parcel of land in Lenox, Mass. Deed dated June 10, 1826, and recorded Sept. 4, 1826. William West was a farmer. The census of 1820 enlists him as head of a family at Clarkson, Genesee Co., N. Y. In 1860 the census enlists him in Whiteford, Monroe County, Michigan at the age of 68. He moved to Michigan about 1827. He lived on a farm in Whiteford. He died Oct. 13, 1863, and was buried in the old Whiteford Cemetry.
